

PORTLAND MARKETS

Condition of Trade in the Market Shows no Change.

Large Shipment of Colorado and Utah Potatoes Weaken the Market and Prices Indicate a Downward Tendency—Butter Continues Firm.

Large shipments of Potatoes from Utah and Colorado have had a depressing effect on the market and the prices showed a tendency downward. The potatoes do not take the preference over Oregon potatoes, but seem to find a ready sale. The butter market continues firm. A light consignment of California vegetables were received. Strawberries are coming in from California in better condition and meet with ready sale.
